 NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 1980 *****
No: 16

Dear Friend:

Welcome to another FOBHJH newsletter. Above is the latest press photo of the boys from which you will see JOHN has changed his hairstyle. Don't you think it rather suits him?

On the subject of JOHN a bit of good news - he's become a dad! He's promised to let us have a photo and all the details for our next issue - can you wait??

Thanks for all the questions you sent in for LES. They were quite difficult ones and needed a lot of thought and LES is working on them at present so they, too, will appear in our next issue.

LIFE IS FOR LIVING. Sadly didn't do as well as we'd all hoped but it did put BJH in the headlines! They had a tremendous number of press write ups and were on SWAP SHOP. Those of you (in the UK) who took part in the t-shirt/badge/picture bag swap should all have your goodies now and I'm sure you'll agree the t-shirts and badges are superb.

BARCLAYS PLANS

The boys are recording their new album in London at present. It is hoped to release it in March of 1981 and thereafter (fingers crossed - cos it's only a whisper at present) they should tour. If dates come out between newsletters I'll do my best to let you have them, otherwise details will appear in the next issue. Also possible dates in Australia, America, Japan and Europe

SEPT COMPETITION RESULTS

First, the answers. I know from your letters that many of you found this a real tough competition!

THE WINNERS

T- Shirts:

Peter Hines, Surrey (654) ... David Partington, Lancs (1339) ... Louise Masters, Kent (1109) ... Keith Damone, London (63)

Badges:

Richard Smith, Lincs (1332)
Michael Taylor, W. Yorks (621)
Keith Spenceley, Essex (596)
Anne Eyre, Stoke on Trent (9)

There is also a t-shirt and badge awarded to Richard Heap for compiling the Xword for us.

Following the success of our BJH top 20 track list it has been suggested by many of you that we run an album chart. I am therefore organising a top 5 album chart. Here's what to do. List your top 5 albums in order of preference and let me have it by February 7th. I will then sort out the chart and print it in the next issue. Last time's chart proved interesting and quite controversial so let's see what happens now.

FOBJH 1980 SWEATSHIRT.

This year's sweat shirt is, I think, especially super. It's pale blue with a dark blue print - difficult to describe - sort of Hammer Horror into print - saying "FRIENDS OF BARCLAY JAMES HARVEST" plus, of course, our butterfly. It was designed by Simon Trussell who will receive a free one if he lets me know his size.

As usual sweat shirts are a case of money first - as they are so expensive that we can only order the exact number required. Sadly, this year, inflation has caught up with us and I have been unable to hold down the price as has been the case for the last two years. Prices are as follows :-

UK - £8.50 each ... Europe £9.00 each ... Elsewhere £10.20 each.

This price includes postage and packing.

If you wish to order one (and they are worth it) please use the special form at the end of the newsletter. It is important that your sweat shirt money is sent, along with this form, and does not include anything else with it.

I have to have your orders in by 7 February latest and it will then take approximately another 28 days for you to receive your shirt. I know it's a long time but there is no other way we can offer them.
